Bayview Asset Management is proud of its longstanding partnership with Freddie Mac and David Brickman and is honored to be able to recognize his contributions to providing affordable housing across the country. The mission of Breaking Ground, to provide homes and a support system to the chronically homeless, is very needed, especially today. David has shown his dedication to providing affordable housing by improving access to lower cost capital at Freddie Mac through a variety of programs, including the ChoiceHomes program, workforce housing program, or its LIHTC program.

We wish David our best and congratulate him on receiving this well-deserved honor.
